Guidelines for Applications to the Lay Training Fund

1. Applicants should be individual lay people. For the purpose of this lay training fund “lay people” includes congregation members, non-stipendiary/licensed lay workers, and stipendiary lay workers.
2. The fund is intended for lay people who may not otherwise get support. Where applicable, people should also apply to other appropriate bodies.
3. Applications are invited for purposes such as purchasing books, attending conferences, courses and seminars which will equip the applicant in lay ministry and mission.
4. In the case of conferences and seminars the Fund will only apply when these events contain training in ministry which the applicant is currently, or will be exercising.
5. The fund is intended to play a contributory role across a wide spectrum.
Consequently:
 - (a) Since ministry units stand to benefit from training received, a ministry unit contribution is desirable.
 - (b) Individual persons will usually receive only one grant each year, except in special circumstances when a second grant may be given.
 - (c) Grants paid will usually be for 75% of costs, up to a maximum of $250 per applicant.
6. The application must be supported with proof of payment.
