SCHOOL BOARDS ANGLICAN CHARACTER As Approved By Standing Committee June 2024

Anglican Church character refers to the set of beliefs, values and commitments that express the Christian faith in worship and in daily life according to Anglican tradition and custom. It emphasises a balance between Scripture (the Bible), tradition, and reason, promoting worship of God, following the way of Jesus Christ, and love for one another including tolerance, inclusivity and a commitment to social justice. Anglican character is given expression through our liturgical worship style, the sacraments (baptism, holy communion), and a loving community developed through pastoral care.

A Diocesan appointed member of a school board can encourage the Anglican Church character in the school and support the principal, chaplain and school chapel by:

1. Supporting the provision of chapel services in the school by advocating for the principal and chaplain as they plan and prepare regular and meaningful chapel services that follow Anglican liturgical practices, fostering a sense of spiritual community and continuity with Anglican traditions.
2. Promoting Christian values that emphasise the importance of inclusivity and respect for diverse viewpoints, and ensuring that the school environment reflects Christian commitment to social justice and community.
3. Advocating for the integration of faith and learning by supporting the principal in leading curriculum development that reflects Anglican values of inquiry, reason, and education in Christian teaching, the Anglican Catechism, and values.
4. Supporting excellent Pastoral Care in the school, for example, by supporting programmes that provide pastoral care and counselling, helping to create a nurturing environment where students and staff feel they can flourish.
5. Fostering connections between the school and the wider Anglican church, including supporting the chaplain as she or he engages collegially and collaboratively with other clergy and lay leaders in the Diocese, both in respect of contributions made to the worshipping life of the school and in respect of the chaplains continuing development as an Anglican minister in Diocesan learning opportunities.

By championing these areas, a school board member can help maintain and enhance the Anglican character of the school, ensuring that its values and traditions are upheld and celebrated.
